About the University

Jamia Hamdard was established as Society on 26.04.1989 under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 after the receipt of the Letter of Intent (LoI) for declaring Jamia Hamdard as deemed to be University, issued by the Ministry of Education (Erstwhile Ministry of HRD), Department of Education dated 20.03.1989. Jamia Hamdard has been created after amalgamation of six institutions being run by four Societies (i) The Institute of History of Medicine and Medical Research; (ii) Indian Institute of Islamic Studies; (iii) Hamdard Tibbi College (funded by Delhi Government); (iv) Hamdard College of Pharmacy (affiliated to University of Delhi and funded by UGC); (v) Majeedia Hospital and (vi) The School of Nursing after dissolution of their respective societies on 28.04.1989.

About the CDOE

Established in 2004 as the School of Open and Distance Learning, the Centre for Distance and Online Education (CDOE) at Jamia Hamdard has grown into a forward-looking academic centre built for the learners of today and tomorrow. Harnessing the power of information and communication technologies, CDOE delivers high-quality education beyond the boundaries of the traditional classroom – reaching students wherever they are. Whether you are a working professional, a homemaker, or someone living in a remote community, CDOE ensures that the pursuit of knowledge is never out of reach.
